

GERMAN

KD00CH39 German 1, 3ECTS

Objective:

The students will

- understand slow and clear speech related to course topics
- are able to communicate orally and in writing in simple everyday situations, such as introductions, telling about oneself and reacting e.g. in dining situations
- are able to use the most frequent basic structures

Contents:

The students will learn to introduce themselves, to tell some basic things about occupation, hobbies and towns as well to use some basic phrases in situations related to dining and grocery shopping and telling the way. The students will learn to use the following grammatical structures: verb conjugation in present tense, personal pronouns, numbers, use of articles, accusative and word order in the main clause.

Proficiency level: A1

Learning material:

Netzwerk neu A1, Kursbuch (chapters 1-4)

Teaching methods:

Contact lessons or online lessons

Evaluation:

Approved assignments. Written exam in EXAM room. An oral test or grade given on basis of the continuous evaluation that requires 75% of active presence. Scale 0-5

KD00CH40 German 2, 3ECTS

Objective:

The students will

- understand slow and clear speech related to course topics
- are able to communicate orally and in writing in simple everyday situations, such as telling about the family, free time and health

- are able to use the most frequent basic structures.

Contents:

In the course, the students will learn to tell about the family, everyday life and work, to talk about freetime, to make appointments, to communicate in restaurant situations and to tell about health issues at doctor's. The students will learn to use the following grammatical structures: possessive pronouns, modal verbs, - ordinal numbers, verbs with a prefix, haben and sein in simple past, prepositions with the dative case and the imperative.

Proficiency level: A1

Learning material:

Netzwerk neu A1, Kursbuch (chapters 5 to 8)

Teaching methods:

Contact lessons or online lessons

Evaluation:

Approved assignments. Written exam in EXAM room. An oral test or grade given on basis of the continuous evaluation that requires 75% of active presence. Scale 0-5.

KD00CH41 German 3, 3ECTS

Objective:

The students will

- understand clear speech related to course topics
- are able to communicate orally and in writing in simple everyday situations, such as telling about the home, work and past events
- are able to use the most frequent basic structures.

Contents:

The students will learn to tell about a flat, studies, tasks at work, past events, vacation and clothing. The students will learn to use the following grammatical structures: two-way prepositions, perfect tense, pronouns welcher and dieser and personal pronouns in the dative case.

Proficiency level: A1

Learning material:

Netzwerk neu A1, Kursbuch (chapters 9 to 12)

Teaching methods:

Contact lessons or online lessons

Evaluation:

Approved assignments. Written exam in EXAM room. An oral test or grade given on basis of the continuous evaluation that requires 75% of active presence. Scale 0-5

KD00CZ29-3001 Spoken German Skills, 3ECTS

Objective:

The students will

- be able to tell about concrete topics and react fairly spontaneously in a conversation
- be able to express their opinion
- be able to maintain a simple discussion and request clarification
- Improve their pronunciation.

Contents:

An easy German conversation course focusing on oral language skills. The following topics will be covered: small talk, telling about the home country, business travel arrangements, phone transactions and parties as well as topics related to German culture chosen by students. In addition, pronunciation is practiced as well as key communication skills such as expressing an opinion, ensuring understanding, and maintaining conversation.

Proficiency level: A2Learning material:

Online material on Moodle and material created by students

Teaching methods:

Online lessons or at the campus in Lappeenranta and independent study

Evaluation:

Based on learning assignments. Scale 0-5.

KD00CH42 German for Work 1, 3ECTS

Objective:

The students will

- understand speech and texts related to occupations, work and job search
- are able to tell about themselves and their skills
- are able communicate in basic situations related to job search.

Contents:

The students will be able to understand texts related to occupations and tasks at work as well as job advertisements. They will be able to tell about their skills and to write a simple cv. They will be acquainted with features of German working life. The students will increase the command of basic structures: modal verbs in simple past, reflexive verbs, subordinate clauses (dass) and adjective declination.

Proficiency level: A2

Learning material:

Online material on Moodle

Teaching methods:

Online lessons and independent study

Evaluation:

Approved assignments. Written exam in EXAM room. An oral test or grade given on basis of the continuous evaluation that requires 75% of active presence. Scale 0-5

KD00CH43 German for Work 2, 3ECTS

Objective:

The students will

- be able to tell about the company and its products and services
- be able to communicate in sales and purchase situations
- be familiar with features related to German business life and trade.

Contents:

The students will be able to present their company and its products/services. They know how to act in sales and purchasing situations. They know features of German business and commerce. The students expand the mastery of basic structures, e.g. two-way prepositions, word order (subordinate clause), double infinitive and simple past (irregular verbs).

Proficiency level: B1

Learning material:

Online material on Moodle

Teaching methods:

Online lessons and independent study

Evaluation:

Approved assignments. Written exam in EXAM room. An oral test or grade given on basis of the continuous evaluation that requires 75% of active presence. Scale 0-5

KD00CT54 German for Work 3, 3ECTS

Objective:

The student is able to communicate in oral interaction situations at the workplace related to e.g. company visits. The student is able to compose work-related emails. The student knows the key features of German working life.

Contents:

During the course, the students independently complete listening and reading comprehension assignments, vocabulary and grammar exercises, as well as produce texts in speaking and writing. The topics include presenting oneself in professional situations, receiving guests at the workplace, agreeing on schedules, work emails and work calls. The students will practice the following structures: n-declension, pronounal adverbs, conditional, relative sentences, and prepositions that require a genitive.

Proficiency level: B1

Learning material:

Online material on Moodle

Teaching methods:

Independent study. One oral assignment on Zoom at a time to be agreed with the teacher.

Evaluation:

Final written exam (0 to 5) in the electronic examination system and one oral assignment (0 to 5) on Zoom.

KD00BX51 Wirtschaftsdeutsch, 3ECTS

Objective:

The students will

- understand German texts related to business, economics and sustainable development and masters the vocabulary related to the topics
- be able to tell about the activities and economic development of a company both orally and in writing
- be able to tell some key facts about the economy of their own country

Contents:

The students will read and listen to texts related to companies, economic life and sustainable development. They will expand the vocabulary related to these topics, as well as strengthen the command of structures. Oral exercises in pairs and small groups.

Proficiency level: B1

Learning material:

Online material on Moodle

Teaching methods:

Online meetings and independent study

Evaluation:

Successful completion of written and oral assignments. Final exam in the electronic exam. Scale 0 to 5.