BUILDING COMMUNITY THROUGH MEANINGFUL ACTIONS

- A safe and inclusive atmosphere doesn't happen on its own – it's a shared responsibility.
  - Clear rules and agreed practices build trust and should be communicated openly.
- Collaboration skills and intercultural experiences are essential for success in both studies and working life.
  - Understanding diverse perspectives and communicating constructively are key competencies practiced within our student community.
- Respect and empathy form the foundation of our community – let's make them part of everyday life.
  - The way we speak, listen, and work together truly matters.
- Inclusion grows from simple actions: joining others, listening actively, and giving space.
- Let's create a community where everyone feels they belong, is treated with respect and can grow alongside others.
