

STUDENT COMMUNITY COORDINATOR AND LAPPEENRANTA CAMPUS COMMUNITY SPACE

Elina Tulikoura

“Let's talk – community starts with connection.”

The student community coordinators of LUT University / LAB University of Applied Sciences build, develop and support students' sense of community, inclusion and well-being. The Student Community Coordinator makes sure that students find the right support and connect with the student community.

YOU CAN TALK TO THE STUDENT COMMUNITY COORDINATOR ABOUT ISSUES SUCH AS:

- activities, events and campaigns that promote a sense of community on campus
- guidance to support services (on or off-campus)
- ups and downs of everyday life
- creating a safe campus community and study atmosphere
- adjusting to your student city and student life
- promoting engagement and inclusion in the campus community (particularly for international students).

COMMUNITY SPACE ON CAMPUS

- The community space offers all students an open environment where they can study, meet others and participate in activities that support well-being, networking and studying.
- The community space offers space for working, relaxing and hanging out, information about various services and events, as well as different games, crafting materials, and coloring pictures etc.
- Program includes for example weekly community coffees, different workshops, events and infosessions and guest services from campus and campus cities.

BUILDING COMMUNITY THROUGH MEANINGFUL ACTIONS

- A safe and inclusive atmosphere doesn't happen on its own – it's a shared responsibility.
 - Clear rules and agreed practices build trust and should be communicated openly.
- Collaboration skills and intercultural experiences are essential for success in both studies and working life.
 - Understanding diverse perspectives and communicating constructively are key competencies practiced within our student community.
- Respect and empathy form the foundation of our community – let's make them part of everyday life.
 - The way we speak, listen, and work together truly matters.
- Inclusion grows from simple actions: joining others, listening actively, and giving space.
- Let's create a community where everyone feels they belong, is treated with respect and can grow alongside others.
